NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

OUR COMMITMENT TO YOU:

We understand that your medical information is personal to you, and we are committed to protecting the information about you. You should be comfortable in sharing any information about your health with your doctor in order to help him/her provide the most appropriate health care. As our patient, we create paper and electronic medical records about your health, our care for you, and the services and/or items we provide to you as our patient. We need this record to provide for your care and to comply with certain legal requirements.

All of our medical and administrative staff understands that the practice is required by law to:

- 4 make sure that the protected health information about you is kept private;
- 5 provide you with a Notice of our Privacy Practices and your legal rights with respect to protected health information about you; and
- 6 follow the conditions of the Notice that is currently in effect.

HOW YOUR MEDICAL INFORMATION MAY BE USED OR DISCLOSED

This explanation is provided only to help you understand how the practice may use or disclose your protected information not only to provide you with health care services, but also to comply with any authorizations or disclosures required by law. For example, your medical information may be used for:

Medical Treatment. We will use medical information about you that was on file prior to this notice or which may be obtained after the date of this Notice to provide, coordinate or manage your health care and any related services. This includes the sharing information with others that have already obtained your permission to have access to your protected health information. We may also disclose medical information about you to doctors, nurses, laboratory or imaging technicians, medical students, hospital or home health personnel who are involved in taking care of you. We may also disclose information to other doctors who may be treating you or to whom we may refer you for care. These doctors may need information from your medical record to provide appropriate care.

Different areas of our practice also may share medical information about you including your record(s), prescriptions, requests for lab work and x-rays. We may also discuss your medical information with you to recommend possible treatment options or alternatives that may be of interest to you. We also may disclose medical information about you to people outside our practice who may be involved in your medical care after you leave the practice; this may include your family members, or other personal representatives authorized by you or by a legal mandate (a guardian or other person who has been named to handle your medical decisions, should you become incompetent).

Payment. We may use and disclose medical information about you for services and procedures in order to create a bill or claim and collect payment from you, an insurance company, or any other third party. For example, we may need to give health care information about treatment you received at the Practice to the third parties you identify to obtain payment or reimbursement for the care. We may also tell your health plan and/or referring physician about a treatment you are going to receive to obtain prior approval or to determine whether your plan will cover the treatment or to facilitate payment to physician to who we may send or receive a referral related to your care.

Health Care Operations. We may use and disclose medical information about you so that we can run our Practice more efficiently and make sure that all of our patients receive quality care. These uses may include reviewing our treatment and services to evaluate the performance of our staff, deciding what additional services to offer and where, deciding what services are not needed, and whether certain new treatments are effective. We may also disclose information to doctors, nurses, technicians, medical students, and other personnel for review and learning purposes. When we use an outside business, such as an accounting firm or consultant to help in our business operations, we will advise them of their continued obligation to maintain the privacy of your medical records.

Appointment and Patient Recall Reminders. We may ask that you sign in at the Receptionists' Desk, on a "Sign In" log on the day of your appointment with the Practice. We may use and disclose medical information to contact you as a reminder that you have an appointment for medical care with the Practice, or that you are due to receive periodic care from the Practice. This contact may be by phone, in writing, or otherwise and may involve the leaving of a message on an answering machine, which could be received or intercepted by others. Please let us know, in writing, if this is not acceptable or if there is another telephone number, or method of notification you prefer.

Research. Under certain circumstances, we may use and disclose medical information about you for research purposes regarding medications, efficiency of treatment protocols and the like. All research projects are subject to an approval process, which evaluates a proposed research project and its use of medical information. Before we use or disclose medical information for research, we will obtain an Authorization from you to disclose your individually identifiable health information, unless the authorization requirement has been waived. If possible, we will make the information non-identifiable to a specific patient. If the information has been sufficiently de-identified, an authorization for the use or disclosure is not required.

Required by Law. We will disclose medical information about you when required to do so by federal, state or local law.

To Avert a Serious Threat to Health or Safety. We may use and disclose medical information about you when necessary to prevent a serious threat either to your specific health and safety or the health and safety of the public or another person. Any disclosure, however, would only be to someone able to help prevent the threat.

Organ and Tissue Donation. If you are an organ donor, we may release medical information to organizations that handle organ procurement or organ, eye or tissue transplantation or to an organ donation bank, as necessary to facilitate organ or tissue donation and transplantation.

Public Health Risks. Law or public policy may require us to disclose medical information about you for public health activities. These activities generally include the following:

- to prevent or control disease, injury or disability;
- to report births and deaths;
- to report suspected child abuse or neglect;
- to report reactions to medications or problems with products;
- to notify people of recalls of products they may be using;
- to notify a person who may have been exposed to a disease or may be at risk for contracting or spreading a disease or condition;
- to notify the appropriate government authority if we believe a patient has been the victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence. We will only make this disclosure if you agree or when required or authorized by law.

Investigation and Government Activities. We may disclose medical information to a local, state or federal agency for activities authorized by law. Examples include audits, investigations, inspections, and licensure. These activities are necessary for the payer, the government and other regulatory agencies to monitor the health care system, government programs, and compliance with civil rights laws.

Lawsuits and Disputes. If you are involved in a lawsuit or a dispute, we may disclose medical information about you in response to a court or administrative order. We may also disclose medical information about you in response to other lawful procedures by someone else involved in the dispute. We shall attempt in these cases to tell you about the request so that you may obtain an order protecting the information requested if you so desire. We may also use such information to defend ourselves or any member of our Practice in any actual or threatened action.

Law Enforcement. We may release medical information if asked to do so by a law enforcement official:

- In response to a court order, subpoena, warrant, summons or similar process;
- To identify or locate a suspect, fugitive, material witness, or missing person;
- Concerning the victim of a crime if, under certain limited circumstances, we are unable to obtain the person's agreement;
- About a death we believe may be the result of criminal conduct;
- About criminal conduct at the Practice; and
- In emergency circumstances to report a crime; the location of the crime or victims; or the identity, description or location of the person who committed the crime.

Coroners, Medical Examiners and Funeral Directors. We may release medical information to a coroner or medical examiner. This may be necessary, for example, to identify a deceased person or determine the cause of death. We may also release medical information about patients of the Practice to funeral directors, as necessary to carry out their duties.

OTHER USES OF MEDICAL INFORMATION.

Other uses and disclosures of medical information not covered by this notice or the laws that apply to us will be made only with your written permission, unless those uses can be reasonable inferred from the intended uses above.

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO REVOKE AN AUTHORIZATION.

If you have provided us with your permission to use or disclose medical information about you, you may revoke that permission, in writing, at any time. If you revoke your permission, we will no longer use or disclose medical information about you for the reasons covered by your written authorization. You understand that we are unable to take back any disclosures we have already made with your permission, and that we are required to retain our records of the care that we provided to you.

COMPLAINTS

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with the Practice or with the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services. To file a complaint with the Practice, contact our office manager, who will direct you on how to file an office complaint. The Office Manager can be reached at (404) 699-1339. All complaints must be submitted in writing. You will receive a written reply after the investigation. You will not be penalized for filing a complaint.

PATIENT RIGHTS

You have the following rights regarding medical information we maintain about you:

* Right to Inspect and Copy. You have the right to inspect and copy medical information that may be used to make decisions about your care. This includes your own medical and billing records. Upon proof on an appropriate legal relationship or designation as your Personal Representative, others involved with your care may inspect records or for which you have a guardian or custodial relationship.

To inspect and copy your medical record, you must submit your request in writing to our Privacy Officer. Call or ask the front desk person for the name of the Privacy Officer. If you request a copy of the information, we may charge a fee for the costs of copying, mailing or other supplies (tapes, disks, etc.) associated with your request.

We may deny your request to inspect and copy in certain very limited circumstances. If you are denied access to medical information, you may request that our Compliance Committee review the denial. Another licensed health care professional chosen by the Practice will review your request and the denial. The person conducting the review will not be the person who denied your request. We will comply with the outcome and recommendations from that review.

You may also request that we send your records directly to another health care provider for review and determination of disclosure to you.

* Right to Amend. If you feel that the medical information we have about you in your record is incorrect or incomplete, then you may ask us to add an amendment to your record following the procedure below. You have the right to request an amendment for as long as the Practice maintains your medical record.

To request an amendment, your request must be submitted in writing, along with your requested amendment and a reason that supports your request to amend. The amendment must be dated and signed by you and notarized.

We may deny your request for an amendment if it is not in writing or does not include a reason to support the request. In addition, we may deny your request if you ask us to amend information that:

1. Was not created by us, unless the person or entity that created the information is no longer available to make the amendment;
2. Is not part of the medical information kept by or for the Practice;
3. Is not part of the information which you would be permitted to inspect and copy; or
4. Is inaccurate or incomplete.

*Right to an Accounting of Disclosures. You have the right to request an "accounting of disclosures" made by this practice after April 14, 2003. This is a list of the disclosures of your medical information we made to others that are not involved with your treatment, payment of services rendered to you or health care operations, as previously defined in this Notice of Privacy Practices, for an example, disclosures requested by court order or to another entity on your authorization.

To request this list, you must submit your request in writing. Your request must state a time period not longer than six (6) years back and may not include dates before April 14, 2003. Your request should indicate in what form you want the list (for example, on paper). We will notify you of the cost involved and you may choose to withdraw or modify your request at that time before any costs are incurred.

*Right to Request Restrictions. You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the medical information we use or disclose about you for treatment, payment or health care operations. You also have the right to request a limit on the medical information we disclose about you to someone who is involved in your care or the payment for your care (a family member or friend). For example, you could ask that we not use or disclose information about a particular treatment you received.

We are not required to agree to your request and we may not be able to comply with your request. If we do agree, we will comply with your request, except that we shall not comply, even with a written request, if we are otherwise required to disclose the information by law.

To request restrictions, you must make your request in writing. In your request, you indicate:

1. what information you want to limit;
2. whether you want to limit our use, disclosure or both; and
3. to whom you want the limits to apply, (e.g., disclosures to your children, parents, spouse, etc.)

* Right to Request Confidential Communications. You have the right to request that we communicate with you about medical matters in a certain way or at a certain location. For example, you can ask that we only contact you at work, or by mail, or that we not leave messages on voice mail.

To request confidential communications, you must make your request in writing. We will not ask you the reason for your request. We will accommodate all reasonable requests. Your request must specify how or where you wish us to contact you.

* Right to a Paper Copy of This Notice. You have the right to a paper copy of this notice at any time. Even if you have agreed to receive this notice electronically, you are still entitled to a paper copy of this notice.
